1. FROM THE SATSANGHS OF SAIBANISA JI

Compiled by: Sai Sevak Smt. Rajeswari Kasturi, Saidarbar – Hyderabad.

Shirdi Sai's Philosophy in the words of Saibanisaji

You should respect each other, follow My teachings, and refrain from disputes: you should not like water and oil, repel each other, but should, like milk and water, mingle together.

Study together, learn together, practice My teachings together. Do not waste your mind and time in idleness and quarreling. Enjoy the blossoms of Enlightenment in their season and harvest the fruit of the right path.

If you neglect them. It means that you have never really meet me. It means that you are far from me, even if you are actually with me, but if you accept and practice My teachings, then you are very near to Me, even though you are far away.”

The demon of worldly desires is always seeking chances to deceive the mind. If a viper lives in your room and you wish to have a peaceful sleep, you must first chase it out.

You must break the bonds of worldly passions and drive them away as you would a viper. You must positively protect your own mind.

3. SAI IN DREAMS:

These are the dream sequences and messages as received by SaiBaNiSaji From our beloved GURU LORD SAINATH OF SHIRIDI. In Anticipation that this feature will help in one's spiritual growth are hereby compiled from his personal Diary and presented to SAIBANDHUS.

Translated and presented by RAGHU RAMAN SATULURY.

MARCH-1995:

15-03-1995

Yesterday, I requested Sai to tell me the meaning of the words- 'contentedness' and 'deserving'.

You might have shot few snaps depicting good in society while others exhibited nudity in pictures. But the judges decided and announced prizes to the bad ones under the cover of 'being real' and 'near natural'. Be contented with the fact that you submitted some good photographs for the event. Develop a feeling that you don't deserve the gifts. In life being contented is more important than aspiring to deserve. I realized that whatever has to happen will happen, but association with Sai is more important to me.

Contentment brings joy and removes many a sorrow.

17-03-1995

Sai has shown me a peculiar visual-

It was a Sunday fair. Pearls and gems are stacked in big heaps and sold. Naturally the rich people are seen flocking and buying them what all they could. In the meanwhile a poor man took fancy for them and managed to steal one from them and run away. Rich ones are chasing him and shouting slogans to catch him. He ran for safety and to save his life. I was watching all this and vowed to Lord Venkateswara that I will come to the hill - top and get my head shaved if the poor man is saved. Even I could not escape the wrath of the rich people in the process. I too was attacked. I got up from sleep and started analyzing the dream content. I could not arrive at any conclusion and I did not know which side of the wall to jump. I only hope that one fine day, Sai will clear my doubts.

Never indulge in unnecessary activities.

20-03-1995

Neither wealth nor kith and kin accompany us when we leave the World. I prayed Baba to help me in overcoming the weakness for 'my people' and 'mine'.

Sai has shown me with a visual-

The other woman who gave me all the worldly pleasures is now suffering from a chronic disease and has become a skeleton, eagerly awaiting her death. I am not even daring enough to touch her and am helplessly watching her in agony. A saint came near me and asked me- "why are you hesitating to touch her, even though you claimed her to be your nearest and dearest one in the past. How can she be yours now?" I then understood that all the events in life will be bygone events and are transient. They are not going to live forever with us.

The ageing physical body will wear wrinkles sooner or later. Why love the body so much?

4. QUINTESENCE OF SRI SAIBABA'S PHILOSOPHY:

(By Late Sri Bharam UmamaheswaraRao)

"Shashi": shashi_31@yahoo.com

29. Is Samsara Really Necessary?

Baba further advised: To seek Moksha, there is no need to stay at Ashrams. If a person considers Me as his sole refuge and withdraws his mind from all worldly objects, then he gains Atman-Jnana. Wherever he resides, it is immaterial. Acquiring self-realization is important to you all. Even though you are leading a family life, if your mind is aligned with philosophical thinking you get the reward of peaceful life. Without knowing this, leaving your Gruhastha Dharma and going to forests, caves and Ashrams to gain Mukti is a mere waste of precious lifetime. Bhakti and firm faith on God are important. This type of study is practicable in Gruhashtashram only. Whereas in other Ashrams, one has to adopt some many difficult principles, in householder's life, keep your mind from attachments which give tribulations. Drive out Raga-dwesa from your mind with firm determination. Do Sadhana for tranquility, then you will attain Suddha-Chaitanya. If this is done in Gruhashtashram, it is far better than Sansyashram.

Baba further said: The Gruhashtashram, a composition of Mamakara and Ahankara with all its transient joys and sorrows is called Samsara. When they are driven out from your mind, the thought of Self-Realization dawns in the mind. It is wrong to feel proud that you have taken Sanyasa Ashram or staying in an Ashram, there will be no use of your Japa, Tapa etc under the guidance of a Guru. Don't get carried away by such wrong notion and trying such feats of asceticism: For persons living in a society, it is absolutely absurd and even cowardly to run away from the midst of their contacts with kith and kin and seek calm relief in some distant remote uninhabited forests. Wherever you go, the mind is with you only, with its past memories giving you real company though unseen and imposing a number of mental fancies and feelings from which you cannot get away. The mind seeks to escape from itself, but it cannot do so, at least instantaneously. Many of you think that your contacts with family, children, wife, friends, acquaintances, social circles are the cause of much pain in your effort to attain purity of mind and ability to identify yourselves with Paramatma. This is absolutely wrong notion. These contacts were not created in a day and cannot be cut off in a minute. They have become part and parcel of one's nature and having that in view, there is no necessity to have any revulsion at the idea of having a wife etc. relationship with son and others is also similar.

5. SANATANA DHARMA & SHRI SHIRDI SAIBABA

As butter lies hidden within milk, The Self is hidden in the hearts of all.

Churn the mind through meditation on it; Light your fire through meditation on it: The Self, all whole, all peace, all certitude.

Yesterday I lived bewildered, in illusion. But now I am awake, flawless and serene, beyond the world. From my light the body and the world arise. So all things are mine, or nothing is -
Ashtavakra Gita

Be aware of me always, adore me, make every act an offering to me, and you shall come to me; this I promise; for you are dear to me. Abandon all supports and look to me for protection. I shall purify you from the sins of the past; do not grieve.

-Bhagavad Gita 18:65-66

6. DEVOTEES EXPERIENCES:

subba48@gmail.com

Fri, 22 Jun 2007 19:27:46 +0530

I have seen many devotees giving their experience. I am giving mine which was only so far told among close friends. In the year 1997 I had to stay away from family and stay in a lodge room since the transfer was mid academic. I used to visit my mother on weekends. One Sunday When I was about to leave after visiting mother I had high temp .102.I had to go to office next day since I was having cash keys. My mother told at least take some rice with "rasam"(south India this will be diet when somebody is sick) I refused and she asked at least take hot water in her flask so that i can drink at least Horlicks or some drink. That also I refused because she may need it, she asked me being alone in room who will give food drink and all that. I casually told showing Baba's photo, that He will give. I left and reached my place after 3hrs bus journey, on Sunday night. The temp maintained at 102. Next morning I managed to go to the office and handed over the keys came back and slept. Evening when I got up it was 5.30pm. Since in the lodge mostly working people were staying all rooms were locked.

I was feeling very hungry, thought I can have rice with rasam if mother is there, at least I could have brought flask with hot water I can have some drink, So thinking seeing a burst size photo of Shirdi Sai (which I will do prayer) now I need rasam rice can u give I have told my mother that u will take care of me. I would not have finished saying the door was knocked. Since I was not well I did not bolt it so I asked come in. To my surprise a man with white and white uniform asked whether it is room 18 and am I Subbiah. I took a tiffin carrier out with a leaf. I told him pointing baba's photo just now I asked him rice with rasam you say that u have brought food, I don't know you but I am sure you are BABA or Sent by him. He didn't reply placed the leaf before me took rice and rasam. IT was hot and very good. I just told because of you are troubled. He replied no trouble so many people eat daily. I wanted some water. To my surprise he took a flask similar to one offered by my mother. I was actually weeping and ate full rice what was served and took water also. Remaining water he stored in a bottle he packed and took the bag walked down the floor 2nd floor after two I felt very fresh no fever got energy and rushed down, Nobody was there. Really I was feeling very fresh after that till now no fever has attacked me.

7. SAI WITH CHILDREN:

Smt. Madhu Gopal Ravada, Saidarbar, Hyderabad.

Hello Children! I am Madhu aunty. Do you know Baba use to play with children and used to tell stories to them? I felt children visiting Saidarbar should be entertained with good stories. Now I want to tell the stories what heard in my child hood.

THE TIGER AND THE GOLD BANGLE:

One day a rich merchant was passing through a dense forest. As he walked down the path his solid gold bangle shone on his wrist. A tiger was hiding in the tall grass by the path. As the merchant came near enough, the tiger pounced and killed him. After feasting on the merchant's flesh, the tiger did not know what to do with the gold bangle. He kept it with himself any way. After few years, the tiger grew old and weak. He could no longer chase a prey. He started thinking of some way to get his food. He remembered the gold bangle he had. He thought, "I have heard that human beings are very fond of gold. I must test and confirm this. May be I can lure some passers – by with this gold bangle and then kill them. This way, I will have enough to eat to survive the rest of the days of my life."

So the tiger took the gold bangle and sat by the path that ran across the forest. As he had thought, he lured many people with the gold bangle and ate them up. Now he had found a good idea to eat the tasty flesh of human beings. He made it a routine. In this way, he began to live a happy life. One day a clever but poor man named Krishna was walking down the forest path. As he walked on, he heard a voice from the tall grass by the path, "My Dear man, will you stop for a while and hear me out?" Krishna looked around, but could see no one near the trees or bushes. Then his eyes were blinded by a flash in the grass. He stealthily walked a step nearer. To his surprise, he saw a tiger in the tall grass. He held a gold bangle in his paw. Then fear gripped Krishna's heart and he stepped back. The tiger said, "Don't fear my friend. Come here and take this gold bangle." Krishna said, "Do you take me for a fool? You are a well known ferocious animal. I cannot come near you to lose my life."

But the tiger insisted, "Your thoughts are true because everyone knows that tigers are violent animals. But look at me now. I am not strong anymore and my paws have lost the sharp nails too. I have killed many people and animals in my life. Now I am old, I want to die without any burden of sin. I gave up my violent nature. As repentance I want to give this gold bangle to any man. You are lucky to have come down this forest path today.” At the tiger’s honest sounding lecture, Krishna grew thoughtful. He thought, “If this tiger has given up his violent nature then there seems to be no danger in approaching him. Furthermore, I am a poor man. The gold bangle which the tiger is offering can help me a lot.” So overcome by greed and losing his ability to think, Krishna went to the tiger. The wicked tiger waited till Krishna came near and then pounced on him. Krishna died instantly and once again the tiger was able to fool a man due to his greed for gold.

8. SPIRITUAL GEMS FROM SAI SATCHARITRA

swamymain@yahoo.com

Mon, June 25, 2007 12:10 am

Sai Ram. Let us now take up another wonderful chapter and explore the Spiritual Gems that the Ocean of Sai Satcharitra contains. Needless to say, these gems are being given by the grace of Sai Sadguru to enable us move on the Spiritual path. Sai Ram.

As usual, SSS represents Sri Sai Satcharitra and SSG represents Sai's Spiritual Gems. Sai Ram.

Shri Sai Satcharitra

Chapter XXIV

Baba's Wit and Humor - Chanak Leela - (1) Hemadpant (2) Sudama (3) Anna Chinchankar vs. Mavsibai.

Preliminary

To say that, we shall state such and such in the next or this Chapter, is a sort of egoism. Unless, we surrender our ego to the feet of our Sad-guru, we will not succeed in our undertaking. If we become egoless, then our success is assured.

SSG: Sai Ram. Saying that we surrender our ego at the feet of our Sadguru is also a sort of egoism! When we realize that nothing in this world is really ours, that we, including our ego is His and that when the time comes, Sai Sadguru will enlighten us and show us our illusions (that we are separate from Him) and thus liberate us from the karmic bonds (which arise from our sense of separation and thus our sense of doership) of pleasure and pain. Sai Ram. However, the thought of surrendering our ego is a refined form of our ego and is to be preferred to the ego which is full of pride (of health, wealth, intellectual knowledge etc.). Sai Ram.

SSS: By worshipping Sai Baba, we attain both the objects, worldly and spiritual, and are fixed in our true Nature, and get peace and happiness. Therefore, those who want to gain their welfare, should respectfully hear Sai Baba's Leelas or stories and meditate on them. If they do this, they will easily attain the object of their life and get Bliss.

SSG: Sai Ram. Good deeds get good results. Worshiping Sadguru Sai is a result of many past good karmas coming to fruition now and thus though there may be a few set-backs, our success in all aspects of our lives is guaranteed. Yes, guaranteed. No doubt. As we shall see in stories (nay, real experiences) of other devotees, even trying to test Him comes only out of past good karmas and His grace. So, dear reader, if you have some doubts, by all means test Sai, the Sadguru. If you are Sai's man / woman (child) (and most probably if you are reading this, you are), He will draw you into His darbar and will set you on a good path in both this world and the next. Sai Ram.

These are not stories as I keep telling repeatedly. They are mines of Spiritual Gems shining with great spiritual truths and it is our good fortune that Sai has allowed Sri Hemadpant to record them and He is allowing me, His servant, to bring out these Spiritual Gems for us to enjoy and benefit. Sai Ram.

We will continue with this chapter for the next few weeks.

His servant,

S.V.Swamy,

9. ARTICLES FROM SAI DEVOTEES:

debu7366@yahoo.com

On 6/22/07

A disciple and his teacher were walking through the forest. The disciple was disturbed by the fact that his mind was in constant unrest. He asked his teacher: "Why most people's minds are restless, and only a few possess a calm mind? What can one do to still the mind?"

The teacher looked at the disciple, smiled and said:

"I will tell you a story. An elephant was standing and picking leaves from a tree. A small fly came, flying and buzzing near his ear. The elephant waved it away with his long ears. Then the fly came again, and the elephant waved it away once more".

This was repeated several times. Then the elephant asked the fly:

"Why are you so restless and noisy? Why can't you stay for a while in one place?"

The fly answered: "I am attracted to whatever I see, hear or smell. My five senses pull me constantly in all directions and I cannot resist them. What is your secret? How can you stay so calm and still?"

The elephant stopped eating and said:

"My five senses do not rule my attention. Whatever I do, I get immersed in it. Now that I am eating, I am completely immersed in eating. In this way I can enjoy my food and chew it better. I rule and control my attention, and not the other way around."

Upon hearing these words, the disciple's eyes opened wide and a smile appeared on his face. He looked at his teacher and said:

"I understand! If my five senses are in control of my mind and attention, then my mind is in constant unrest. If I am in charge of my five senses and attention, then my mind becomes calm".

"Yes, that's right", answered the teacher, "The mind is restless and goes wherever the attention is. Control your attention, and you control your mind".
